

A good life, pass it on.

It is encouraged to make a Will, no matter what your age or circumstances. By making a Will now, you can have peace of mind that your loved ones know your wishes and you have remembered your favourite charities.

This guide will help you identify all of your assets and give them an approximate value. Consider these together with your wishes before speaking to your solicitor.

Your Assets

Item	Value
House and other property
Bank Accounts(s)
Investments
Stocks and shares
Life insurance
Premium bonds
Any money you are owed
Business assets
Cars etc.
Furniture / household possessions
Other assets
Total Assets

What you owe

Outstanding mortgage
Other loans
Overdraft
Credit card balance
Other money owed
Total Owed

Take total what is owed from your assets to give the net value of what you can leave.

Assets
Owed
Net total value of your estate (Assets minus Total of what is owed)

Notes:

Family and Friends

List here the name and addresses of the family and friends you'd like to remember in your Will. You can give a specific item or amount of money to each person or a percentage of everything you own. You should discuss these decisions with your solicitor further.
